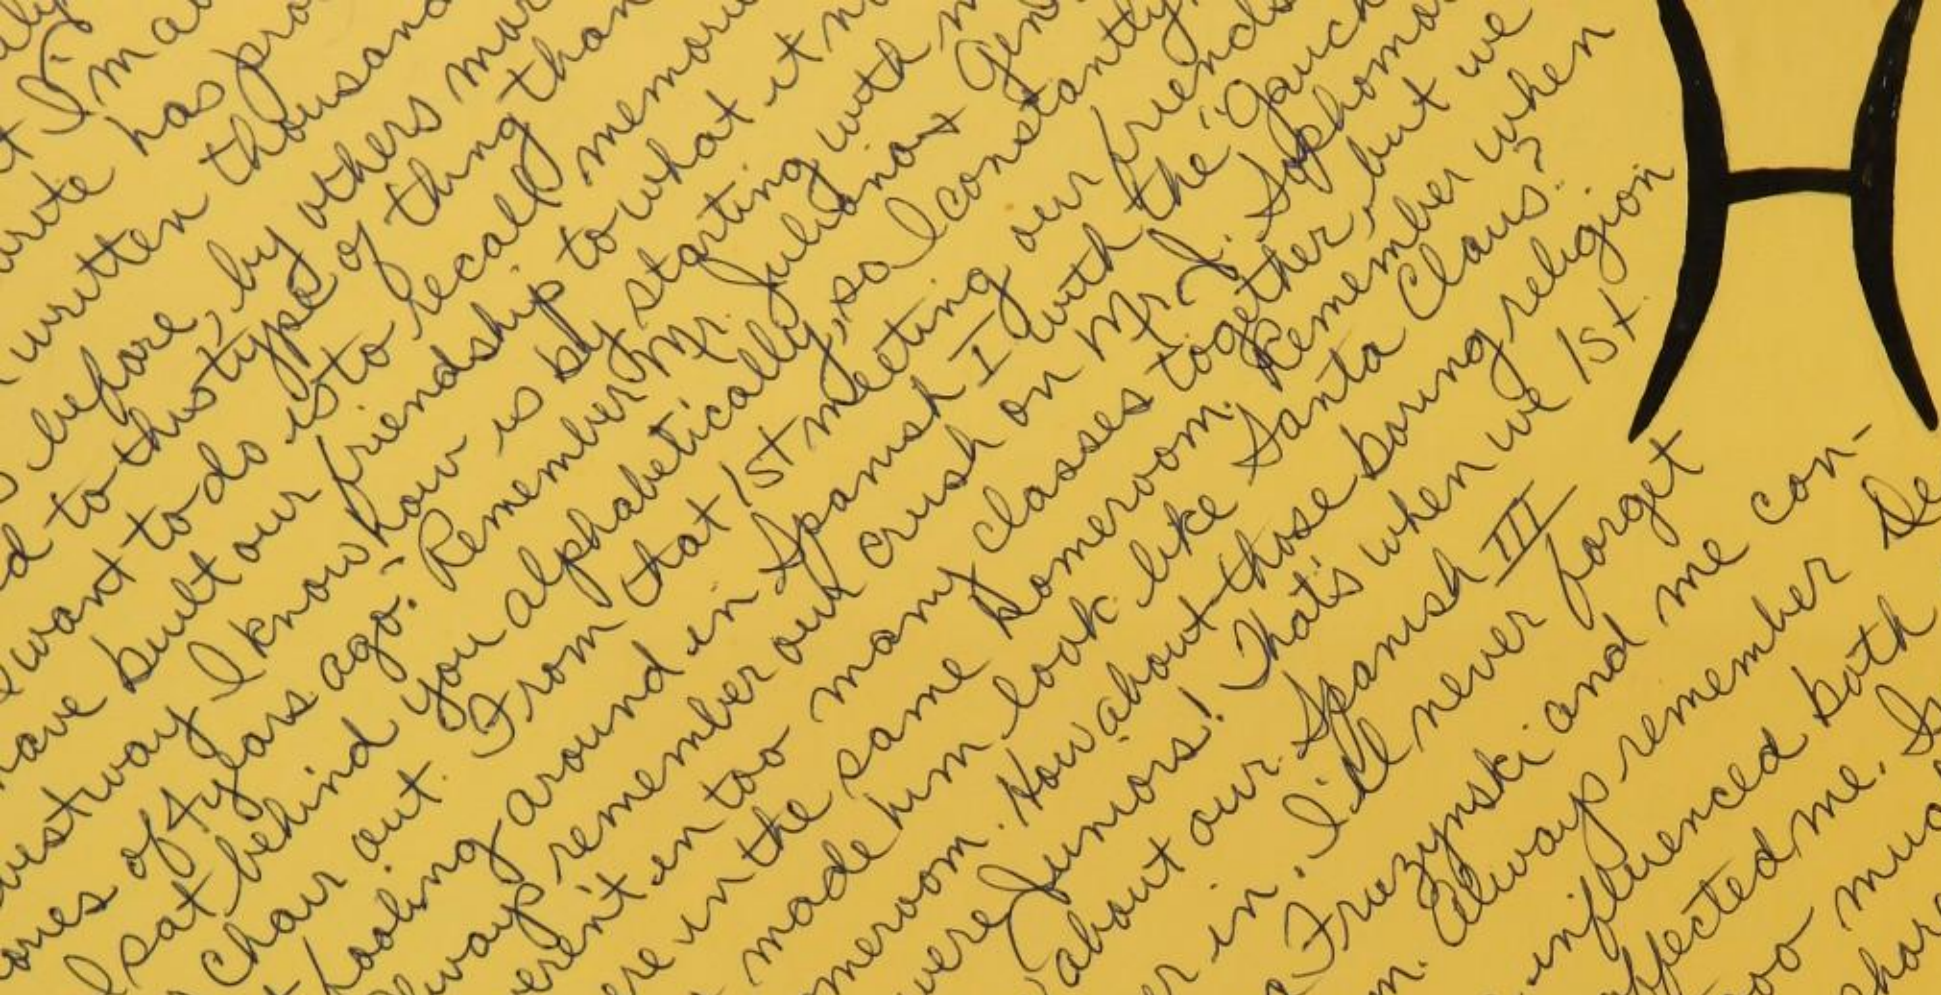
MARILYN B. KOSISKO



Dear Marilyn,

Where has our time gone? It seems as if we just walked into Walsh as "freaky freshmen", and today we are already practicing for Graduation!

Remember how I got to know you in Freshmen Year? I was supposedly going to sit at your table at the Sadie Hawkins Day Dance but I blew that one! Remember how we hated Spanish I and loved Gym Classes! Sophomore Year rolled by and we were only together in English but that was enough for us to get in trouble and laugh our fool heads off! Before we knew it we were Juniors — the Christmas Dance, our talks in History Class, more Gym Classes and H.L. Greene just about sums up that year. I think we were a lot more closer than ever before, & finally learned to understand you and your ways of thinking.

We're Seniors now in our last week of high school and everyday we think of more things and more memories as the days come to an end, and we are about to take our "first" step into a world of new faces, hopes and dreams for the future! Can you believe it! We've made it through more Gym Classes, Chemistry Classes, Religion Classes, Marriage & Family and enough of talks to hold us over for at least 10 days!

Well Marilyn, I guess its been an experience for all of us and maybe in the future, you'll realize that its been the best 4 yrs. of our lives!

I know, now too, that although our friendship started at a slow pace it will continue to grow in the years to come.

Always remember that no matter how much we have planned for the future, we'll always have the

Dedication

This yearbook is dedicated to people–specific people: namely those who have touched our lives and in doing so have ignited a flaming spirit of individualism. It is these people, our parents, the faculty, friends and even enemies, who through their constant presence in our daily lives have incited a spark of life, that has enabled us to become mature, responsible human beings.

It is in this manner that the class of '70 departs from Walsh . . .

Clubs

President Beth O'Brien; Vice President Mickey Pedalino; Treasurer Marilyn Gauthier; Secretary Maureen Farquhar.

Student Council

An important need of any school is people who know how to get along with others and can help others work together to accomplish common goals.

Beth O'Brien

President Judy Bataille; Vice President Diane Tchorzewski; Secretary Maryann Lennon.

Honor Society

An honor student is a girl who besides having the characteristics of every other student possesses the extra qualities of leadership, scholarship, character and service. The National Honor Society is the nationwide organization in which these girls are members.

Judy Bataille

Weavings

Communication is essential for understanding among people. Weavings attempts to unite and activate the student body and faculty by reporting school news, commenting on fundamental issues and expressing individual opinions.

Catherine Carver

Yearbook

Carol Cornell
Editor

Our yearbook, Buchmann Beacon, sees the school through an unslanted camera in both candid shots and traditional poses. It tries to capture the attitudes and ideas of the class of '70 by showing them partaking in activities of the schoolyear.

Essay '70

"A picture may instantly present what a book could set forth only in a hundred pages."

Ivan Turgenev

Essay '70, a picture story of Walsh, aims to capture those moments that make a school year unforgettable.

This section concentrates on the individual's participation in all facets of school life by focusing on student-teacher relationships in the classroom and the club activities that offer every student the opportunity to know herself and her "accomplices in learning" a little better.

The lenses of our 1970 BUCHMANN BEACON camera pictures that life at Walsh which remains "unexpressible in words".

Our approach in closing the 1970 BUCHMANN BEACON is far from ingenious simply because "thank you" is a very old word.

We, the staff, begin by extending our thanks to Sister Martina, our advisor, whose guidance enabled us to produce a cover to cover account of the 1970 schoolyear. We also wish to thank the following artists whose works gave inspiration to our BUCHMANN BEACON: Archibald MacLeish for his poem, "To Set The Dry World Ablaze", to Simon and Garfunkel for their song "The Bookends Theme", and to Eastern Airlines for their commercials "The Wings of Man".

To these individuals, and to all the people of Walsh, the yearbook staff extends a sincere thank you!

It's so hard to put on one page, what you felt for ars & still feel about a certain person, especially when person filled my years with so much sunshine, iness & understanding, but I'll try. I know we haven't n so close this year but we still had many great talks t can never be forgotten (especially when you first came to see the new house & we talked so long that my father tely(?) hinted it was getting late). And of course there's the memories of C. O. G. H, (Georgi & Walter & all our other friends), the greatest memory for me was that is where I first met
!! And then there's Performing Arts & all those "exciting" hman & sophmore nights we went to. And how can I ut the girl who is constantly on a diet but who (as) lly is the last person in the world who needs to be on one!

My only regret is that we never were in each rs classes & we weren't lucky in the homeroom department er - 1 out of 4? I just keep wondering if we would have e closer today if we were together more in classes. But t is in the past & now we can just look to the future. I lly just want one promise - that you always keep in touch friendship never completely breaks. I want to thank for being the best friend I had in high school! I want you to make another promise - if you ever need a nd, a person to talk to someone to give advice, or just to ip & there's no one else around, I want you to promise t you'll always call me up. Now, I guess its my turn to te a promise so I promise that if you ever need me - l be there.

Love Always,

Joanne
